

2018 National Conference and Annual General Meeting
Professional Development Workshops

April 10th
RBC Convention Centre
Winnipeg

		REB Advanced Stream
W1 REB BASICS: Foundational Skills		W2 First Nations Research Ethics And Knowledge Exchange into Action By First Nations Health and Social Secretariat of Manitoba	W3 Multijurisdictional Review	W4 REB Tools and Tricks
8:30 am	REB Basics Rachel Zand & Sharon Frietag Dave Boraski	Elder Prayer Introductory activity History of Self-Determination, culture and traditions in connection with FN stories and research	Multijurisdictional FAQs Susan Zimmerman and Catherine Paquet	Building Resilience Jobb Arnold
10:00am	Refreshment Break
10:30am	REB Basics – cont'd	Western Research vs. FNs Research Ethics- Establishing a relationship built on respect and trust- Group Discussion- How to build trust working in a First Nations community	Model Review: Harmony in Research Ethics Sarah Bennett, Terri Fleming Jean Ruiz,	Understanding the experiences of patients from the Penelakut Island First Nation receiving clinical pharmacy services Sasha Maleki, Nora Thomas, Kim Good Researching “in a good way” – Lessons learned from working with Indigenous people who are living with and affected by HIV Sherri Pooyak
12:00pm	Lunch

2018 National Conference and Annual General Meeting
Professional Development Workshops

April 10th
RBC Convention Centre
Winnipeg

1:30 pm	REB Basics – cont'd	Indigenous Frameworks & Methodology Group Discussion- How do we ensure good relationships in the research that is being done alongside First Nations communities? Challenging and successful examples of the REB process and working with FN communities (both Indigenous and non- Indigenous researchers)	Ontario Colleges Multi-College Research Ethics Review Process Kirsten Madsen, Krista Holmes, Steve Crema	When an exemption doesn't apply: reviewing the exempt through a principled approach to ethical review Sarah Bennett Mission Creep: Probable Pitfalls and Possible Solutions Simon Nuttgens, Gail Leicht
		3:00 pm Refreshment Break
3:30 – 4:30 pm	REB Basics – cont'd	Discussion questions- How do we ensure that we are aware of First Nations ethics and processes when reviewing applications? Closing Reflections & Closing Prayer	Case Study- Multijurisdictional research – Speaking Frankly on the Need for New Approaches & Educational Initiative Patrizia Albanese, Danielle Christie, Farid Pesteh, Zakiya Atcha, Asher Alkoby	The intersection of Research Ethics and RCR – Pragmatic Approaches to Managing the REBs Oversight and Accountability Responsibilities Delilah Ofosu-Barko, Catherine Paquet